

In Another's Arms

The Mavericks '13

2 rounds / 4 bars

All was well, but once again
Right went wrong, no one knows when
Now here we are, yeah, here we are
In another's arms

The two of us, that's all there was We'd bring flowers, just because
Now here we are, yeah, here we are
In another's arms

If only I'd have known
That the love that lingers on
Still makes the world go 'round
But funny how I found
No matter where we are
Sadly there we are - In another's arms
