

Lyin Eyes

E

City girls just seem to find out early,
how to open doors with just a smile.
A rich old man she won't have to worry,
she'll dress in pearl & lace & go in style.

Late at night, a big old house gets lonely,
I guess every form of refuge has its price –
and it breaks her heart to think her love is only – given to a man who's hands are cold as ice.

So she tells him she must go out for the evening,
to comfort an old friend who's feeling down.
But he knows where she's going as she's leaving.
She is heading for the cheating side of town.

[You can't hide your lying eyes & your smile is a thin disguise. I thought by now you'd realize there ain't no way to hide your lyin eyes.

On the other side of town a boy is waiting with firey eyes and dreams no one can see.
She drives on through the night anticipating – cause he makes her feel the way she used to feel.

She rushes to his arms, they fall together –
she whispers its only for a while,
she swears that soon she'll be coming back forever
She pulls away & leaves him with a smile

She gets up and pours herself a strong one.
He stares out at the stars up in the sky.
Another night it's gonna be a long one.
She draws a shade & hangs her head to cry.

She wonders how it ever got this crazy.
She thinks about a boy she knew in school.
Did she get tired or did she just get lazy.
She's so far gone she feels just like a fool.

My oh my, you sure know how to arrange things.
You set it up so well so carefully.
Ain't it funny how your new life didn't change things.
You're still the same old girl you used to be.
