

Shame Shame Shame Shame

Mark Collie

Shame, shame, shame, shame
You're stirring up that old flame
I know you'll steal my heart again
No way that I can win
Shame, shame, shame, shame //

You're like an angel from above
A vision any man could love
But deep inside I realize
You're just a devil in disguise

The day you said that we were through
I swore that I'd be over you
But to my lonely heart's surprise
You walked right back into my life
