

St. James Infirmary

(Eb-M)

I went down to St. James infirmary - & I saw my baby there
She was lyin on a cold white table
- she's so cold and white, so bare.

Let her go, let her go, God bless her - Whereever she may be
May she search the whole world over
- never find another me.

On my left stood Joe McKennedy
- His eyes were bloodshot red
He turned to the crowd around him
- & these were the words he said:

When I die please bury me
- in my high-top Stetson hat.
Put a $20-gold piece on my watch chain
- so they'll know I'm standing pat.

I went down to St. James infirmary - & I saw my baby there
She was lyin on a cold white table
- she's so cold and white, so bare.

Give me a carriage & 6 white horses - to take my baby home
I could search the whole world over -
- & never find another you.
